

National Spicy Hermit Cookie Day
11/15/2024

⇒ Ingredients

- 2 cups + 1 Tbsp all-purpose flour (262 g)
- 2 tsp baking soda
- ¼ tsp salt
- 2 tsp ground cinnamon
- 2 tsp ground ginger
- 1½ tsp ground cloves
- 9 Tbsp unsalted butter (1 stick + 1 Tbsp)
- 1 cup packed dark brown sugar (212 g)
- 1 large egg
- ¼ cup dark molasses
- ¾ cup raisins coarse (turbinado) sugar for sprinkling the top

⇒ Instructions:

1. Sift or sieve the dry ingredients together, to mix them well and to remove any lumps.
2. Cream the butter and brown sugar until the mixture is light and fluffy, scraping down the bowl at least twice.
 - ⇒ Add egg, mix well, then add the molasses, again mixing very well.
 - ⇒ Add the dry ingredients and raisins, mixing slowly so the flour doesn't fly all around the kitchen.
 - ⇒ Stop when the dough comes together and you see no streaks of flour.
3. Divide the dough into 2 or 3 pieces. With wet hands, shape each piece into a log about 1 1/2" in diameter, about 12" long. (Wet hands helps keep the dough from sticking to you)
4. Wrap the dough logs in waxed paper and chill for at least 2 hours, or up to a week. Unbaked logs may be frozen, double-wrapped, to prevent loss of moisture.
5. To bake: heat oven to 375° and line a cookie sheet with ungreased parchment paper. Put two logs on a single cookie sheet, leaving at least 3 inches between them, as they will spread. Sprinkle the tops of the logs with granulated or turbinado sugar.
5. Bake 17-18 minutes, until the bars are puffy but still soft in the center. Slide parchment with the bars right onto the cooling rack, then let it cool completely.
6. When cool, cut the dough stripes crosswise into bars, and store the cookies in an airtight tin.

MEDICINE MAN

Location: 2nd Floor Theater Room
Time: 2:00 PM

Brilliant, eccentric research scientist Richard Campbell (Sean Connery), after living for six years in the Amazon jungle, has possibly discovered a cure for cancer. Dr. Rae Crane (Lorraine Bracco) is sent by the pharmaceutical company they both work for to check up on him. Upon arrival, she contends with Campbell's reluctance to work with a woman. But the two must join forces to fight commercial loggers intent on destroying the jungle and research his cure -- all while falling in love.

RESIDENT OF THE MONTH
Jessie Evans

Jessie was born in Erath, LA in 1940 and was an only child. Her famous saying is "They made me and couldn't top it!" She married Chico Saravia in 1956. They had 3 wonderful children - Carla, Gifford, and Brent. They traveled frequently due to Chico's job. They lived in Africa, Iran, and several states in the U.S. They finally settled in Houston, TX in 1980. Soon after that they became empty nesters, so they began camping. They traveled the U.S. in the camper with a group called "The Unwinders". In early 1991, Chico was diagnosed with liver cancer and lost the battle in February 1992. Jessie moved back to Erath for a brief period. She then reconnected with a camping friend and married Cal Evans in 1996. They too traveled the U.S. in their camper, but their permanent dwelling was in Houston. She lost Cal in 2004 but remained in Houston until 2023. She moved in briefly with her youngest son near San Antonio. Early 2024, she decided to come home to her Cajun roots and made Garden View her home.

All her life, Jessie has used her talents. She sewed her children's clothes and made neckties for her husband. She crafted right alongside her husband Chico for years. All her travels inspired her to begin painting. God blessed her with many talents, and she enjoys sharing them with her many friends and acquaintances. She has 7 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren that she thoroughly enjoys making and painting things for.

Her stay at Garden View has been a very positive one. She loves her apartment and all the staff. Everyone has been very helpful and kind. She especially loves the courtyard with all the beautiful flowers. She enjoys their monthly outings and all the weekly entertainment.

Jessie can best be described as the sassy, hugging, and kissing lady who loves to joke and get lots of laughs from everyone.
