UPCOMING ATTRACTIONS: The Help
Location: 2nd Floor Movie Room
Date: 3/18/2025
Time: 2:00 PM

In 1960s Mississippi, Southern society girl Skeeter (Emma Stone) returns from college with dreams of being a writer. She turns her small town on its ear by choosing to interview the Black women who have spent their lives taking care of prominent white families. Only Aibileen (Viola Davis), the housekeeper of Skeeter's best friend, will talk at first. But as the pair continue the collaboration, more women decide to come forward, and as it turns out, they have quite a lot to say.

RESIDENT OF THE MONTH
Lynne Bonin

Mary Lynne Bonin was born on February 12, 1934, in Union, Mississippi. Her father worked as an engineer, while her mother was an English teacher in public schools. She had one sister, Alice, and a brother, David. During her high school years, the family relocated to Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

Known as Lynne, she earned a degree from LSU and began her career as an elementary school teacher in Lake Charles. During her time at LSU, she was introduced to Elmore (T-More) Bonin, a fellow Louisiana native from St. Martinville, by mutual friends. After T-More completed his military service as a pilot, the couple married and moved to New Orleans, where he attended Loyola Dental School. Upon his graduation, they relocated to St. Martinville, where T-More established a dental practice and they started their family. They had two children: Christopher, who now lives in California, and Lynnette, who resides in Texas with her husband, Gene. Lynnette and Gene are parents to Lynne's two grandchildren, René Bourgeois of Denver and Simone Bourgeois, who recently moved to New Orleans.

While raising her children, Lynne dedicated herself to being a housewife, becoming an exceptional cook with a focus on Cajun and Creole dishes. She also served as a Girl Scout leader and became deeply involved in her community, joining the St. Martinville Garden Club and Book Club, among other local organizations. Of course, she also lent a hand in her husband's dental practice when needed.

As T-More's retirement approached, Lynne persuaded him to purchase an Airstream trailer, sparking their years of travel throughout the United States and Canada, often with fellow travel enthusiasts. After T-More's passing in 2007, Lynne continued her Airstream adventures, driving an Airstream camper van on trips across the country.

Lynne is now enjoying her time at Garden View, where she loves playing bingo and attending live musical performances.
