RESIDENT OF THE MONTH

Modesta Bernardi

Modesta was the eldest of thirteen siblings. She was adopted and raised in Puerto Rico by her godparents. After earning her Registered Nurse (RN) degree, she married her childhood family neighbor, the late Mike Bernardi, in Detroit, Michigan. The couple later moved to Los Angeles, California, where Modesta began working as a postpartum nurse at a hospital just a short walk from their home. She deeply enjoyed caring for new mothers and their babies.

Together, Modesta and Mike raised six children—three daughters and three sons. Their family grew to include nine grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchildren. In California, they dedicated much of their time and energy to their church community, participating in various ministries and events. They were especially active in the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) and the Legion of Mary, helping introduce others to the Catholic faith and its sacraments.

Their home was often filled with family, friends, and neighbors, as Modesta and Mike loved hosting gatherings where people could relax, enjoy good food, and spend quality time together. Modesta had a deep love for cooking and always made time to welcome loved ones around her table.

In October 2024, Modesta relocated to Louisiana, where she now happily resides at Garden View. She continues to cherish visits from her children, grandchildren, and eleven great-grandchildren.

WELCOME

We're excited to welcome Ms. Bennette Daniel and Ms. Dawn Hebert to the Garden View family!
