RESIDENT OF THE MONTH

Sara Tebele

Sara Tebele was born on December 11, 1935, and raised in the vibrant heart of Mexico City. The second of twelve siblings and the eldest daughter, Sara grew up in a large, close-knit family. In 1954, she married the love of her life, Isaac Tebele, in Mexico City. Isaac was born and raised in Brooklyn, New York. Though he spoke no Spanish and Sara didn't yet know English, they communicated in Arabic—their shared language of love. After moving to the United States, Sara learned English and embraced her new life. Together, Sara and Isaac raised four children and built a family business—Paradise Gift Shop in Shreveport, Louisiana. While Sara was a dedicated homemaker, she also played an active role in running the store alongside her husband. Sara has seven great-grandchildren and another on the way. They are the light of her life. Following Isaac's passing, Sara began a new chapter, working at Dillard's Department Store for 35 years. There, she thrived in the fashion world, helping clients as a wardrobe stylist and finding joy in making others feel confident and beautiful. In 2024, after the passing of her beloved eldest son, Charlie, Sara moved to New Iberia to be closer to her daughter Mati. She now resides at Garden View, where she's embraced her new home with warmth and positivity. Sara loves her apartment at Garden View! She spends her days reading, socializing, dining with friends, and playing bingo. Her grace, resilience, and vibrant spirit continue to inspire everyone around her.

Blues, Brews, Boudin & Blue Jeans

A heartfelt thank you to everyone who helped make our Father's Day celebration such a memorable event! Special thanks to: T'iara with Consolata for the delicious boudin and pig skins, Christal with Home Instead for the thoughtful goody bags, Kirsten with Traditions for the generous gifts, Victor with Oceans Behavioral for the delicious cake, Ryan with A Care Partner for bringing the Abita beers, and Tyler with Hospice of Acadiana for the wonderful gifts. Our residents—Mr. Gerald, Mr. Denis, Mr. Melvin, Mr. Daniel, and Mr. Barron—truly enjoyed the event and appreciated all the special touches that made the day memorable. Thanks to all of you, Blues, Brews, Boudin & Blue Jeans was a celebration to remember!

Beauty Salon

Shoutout to beautician Lauren for her fantastic job on our resident's hair! Ms. Lynne, Mrs. Martha, and Mr. Pierre are loving their fresh hairstyles.

Bingo Buck Auction

Ms. Charlene spent 100,000 Bingo Bucks on this beautiful cross design adorned with vintage jewelry, handcrafted by one of our talented residents, Ms. Jessie Evans. A big thank you to Pam Champagne with First Option Home Health for sponsoring our monthly Bingo Buck auctions!
