Three World War II Navy veterans -- Donovan (John Wayne), Doc Dedham (Jack Warden) and Gilhooley (Lee Marvin) -- converge on the French Polynesian island of Haleakaloha and team up to deceive Dedham's prim daughter (Elizabeth Allen), who has just learned of her father's existence and his inherited stock from the company of which she is chairman, and hopes to find just cause to reclaim his shares. Dedham's marriage to an island woman serves to further threaten his share in the company.

RESIDENT OF THE MONTH

Penny Gianfala

Penny Gianfala was born on January 17, 1952, in Franklin, Louisiana, and has always been cherished for her warm heart, radiant smile, and genuine love for people. A proud graduate of USL with a degree in Business Education, Penny dedicated over two decades to shaping young minds as a beloved high school teacher at Franklin Senior High School. Her passion for education and unwavering commitment to her students left a meaningful and lasting impact on the community.

In 2007, following the birth of her first grandchild, Penny retired and shifted her focus to what mattered most—spending time with family and friends. She is the devoted mother of two daughters, Raygan and Kady, and the adoring grandmother of Amelia, a high school senior, and Hayden, a sophomore at Vermilion Catholic High School.

For the past nine months, Penny has been a joyful and active resident at Garden View, where she greets each day with a spirit of kindness and joy. She enjoys reading, catching up with loved ones, and engaging in lively conversations with fellow residents. Always sociable and full of warmth, Penny delights in playing games and sharing laughter with those around her.
