

" I Believe In My Heart" Written by Sandra Dee

Terry, Clay (age 4 or 5), Craig (age 2 or 3) and I were driving to Bentley to visit with my family. Craig was asleep on the back seat and Clay was leaning over the front seat to talk to us and watch the road. (These were the days before seat belts!) As we drove past a house, Clay said : "Mom, I just saw Rennie." (Rennie is my nephew and their first cousin.) His dad And I said we didn't thin so because he would be far from home. "But," Clay said " I did, I just saw Rennie!" Once again we reassured him that was not possible because of the distance we were from Rennie's home.

Our baby boy, Craig slowly rose from the back seat and in a sweet, sleepy voice said, "I believe in my heart Clay saw Rebbie." Then he fell back and closed his eyes once again. oh, how Precious! We were "Flabbergasted" because we were sure he has fast asleep and didn't hear a thing. Sure enough, later we found that Rennie had been visiting at a relative's home many miles away.

To this day, when totally convinced of something , we love to use the phrase:
"I believe in my heart!"

Christmas at Garden View

We celebrated Christmas with lots of joy and holiday cheer! The fun included making ornaments, playing different kinds of bingo, a wonderful performance by our Bell Choir, and a Christmas party filled with delicious food from our kitchen—topped off with a very special visit from Santa himself!
