

My Forgetter's Getting Better

– Author Unknown

My forgetter's getting better,
But my rememberer is broke.
To you that may seem funny,
But to me that is no joke.

For when I'm "here" I'm wondering
If I really should be "there,"
And when I try to think it through
I haven't got a prayer.

Often times I walk into a room
And say, "Now why am I here?"
I rack my brain but all in vain—
A zero score appears.

At times I put things somewhere
safe,
But gee, it's plain to see,
The person it is safest from
Is generally... me.

When shopping I may see someone,
Say "Hi!" and have a chat.
Then when the person walks away
I ask myself, "Who was that?"

Yes, my forgetter's getting better
While my rememberer is broke—
And it's driving me plumb crazy...
And that really is no joke.

P.S. Send this to everyone you know...
Because I don't remember who sent it to me!

Happy Easter from Garden View!

Wishing you a joyful day filled with peace,
love, and fresh beginnings. ☐

Resident of the Month

Barbara Broussard was born and raised in New Iberia to Eula and Joseph Dionne. She attended and graduated from Mt. Carmel. She married the boy who lived next door, and together they raised four children, sharing 53 years of marriage before his passing.

After her youngest child left home, Barbara returned to school and earned her LPN. She then began working in home health care, where she remained dedicated to her patients until her retirement.

Barbara has always loved reading, a passion she passed on to her children. She is also a talented seamstress who enjoyed making clothes for herself and her family. One Easter, she created matching outfits for herself and her daughters, and she lovingly made her daughters' wedding dresses. She enjoys singing and was a devoted member of St. Peter's Church choir for many years.

She finds great joy in being outdoors and tending to her garden.

Barbara is the proud grandmother of 10 grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren, and 2 great-great-grandchildren, all of whom she treasures and loves spending time with. She is currently enjoying meeting new people and making friends at Garden View.

Employee of the Month

Kierra Polidore

One of the most rewarding parts of my role is building meaningful relationships with our residents and making a positive impact in their lives. I have spent most of my career in healthcare, and caring for others has always been my passion.

I treat each resident like family, with love and respect. As I approach my one-year anniversary this June, I can truly say the experience has been fulfilling. I also enjoy supporting my coworkers and working together as a team to provide the best care possible.
